Pierre Schon's War
Luxembourg Resistance
Propaganda, Intelligence, forging papers, escape lines for conscripts, civilians and Jews
Belgian Resistance
Intelligence, Escape lines and Sabotage
Arrest by Gestapo
Arrest by Gestapo
Food to Poland
Flees Gestapo
SOE[1] training
Sabotage For D-Day[2]
Escape Routes for French Prisoners of War (PoWs)
Escape Routes for Allied Airmen shot down over Nazi territory
1940
1941
1942
1943
1944
1945
1946
Luxem bourg
Belgium
France
Allies
Nazi/German Occupation of Luxembourg, Belgium and France
Bulge[4]
Lux Free
Nazi deportation of political prisoners, patriots and Jews
Germany seizes 1.8 million French as Prisoners of War (PoWs)
Allied (UK, Canada, and US) bombing of Nazi Germany occupied territory
D - Day
Liberation
Nazi Trials
War begins
War in Western Europe
War ends
Repatriation Help
PoWs and civilians
Identification of Collaborators
Watches Göring[3]
Citations
Luxembourg - Medals
Belgium - Medals
France - Medals
Commonwealth-Commendation
US - Commendation
Poland - Medal
Notes
[1] SOE – British Special Operations Executive for espionage and sabotage behind enemy lines
[2] D-Day – Allied seaborn invasion of France (June 1944)
[3] Herman Göring – German Luftwaffe Head
[4] Bulge – Battle of the Bulge, German counter offensive in the Ardennes in December 1944